Dear Parents,

You will remember that last academic year we sent you the parents' guide to RSE being taught at St Paul's. A further copy of that guidance is attached to this email and the RSE policy is available to parents on our school website.

The programme we have chosen for the teaching of RSE approved by the Bishop is, "Journey in Love". When we return after the half-term break on Monday 3rd November, staff will be teaching the first strand – Social and Emotional. In the guidance, you can see the aims of the teaching and the specific learning intention for that strand.

Some of the teaching also comes from the science curriculum and some from the PSHE curriculum. Scientific vocabulary will be used when talking about certain subjects e.g. naming body parts. Your child may come home with questions but by reading the guidance and the policy, you will be aware of what has been taught in school during the week.

If you have any questions about this, please contact your child's class teacher in the first instance.

Yours sincerely,

C. Fenna.
